Dear Caroline, Visiting the Anne Frank house was sobering but I am glad we went.
Thank you for the lovely birthday gift.
I just opened it in the hotel as I drank coffee. I can hear church bells ringing outside - the sky is clear and I love opening the window of our hotel room and delighting in the beautiful architecture and entertaining people - watching opportunities.
I think you would love this city. We should visit together someday. Love, Brenda
