

Dear Caroline,
 What's new with fluffy ruffles? You! Vietnam is my favorite trip so far. Today we sailed into the Gulf of Tonkin. (the pic on front). It is really beautiful and there are 2,000 islands here. The water is totally green, (maybe in part b/c of the pollution) but it looks like jade which is awesome. Yesterday I went kayaking through an oyster farm and mountain. I can't wait to tell you more next time we talk. I'm so excited to see you in May :)
