

Dearest awesomestestest caroline Versailles was big. ~~and the gardens~~ were green and had too much ~~grass~~ and the houses were colorful and had too much gilding.

My French is terrible. They're all very nice, though, and listen patiently and answer in English.

Paris is big and loud. The metro is always very crowded. ~~that~~ The city is crowded and alive, especially at night. Did I mention the tourists? Lots of tourists. I hate tourists.

Anyway, back to Versailles. This postcard is a picture of the Hall of mirrors. It is mindbly impressive, if ~~not~~ a bit tacky.

The food in Paris is good. Lots of cheeses and breads and wines (that I can't have).
