Hey Caroline,

Guess who just got to see Guardians of the Galaxy on the plane ride back to the US?! I was hell's stoked that they played it b/c a) It's a great movie b) I missed part of it when ~~we~~ we went to see it as a group b/c of a phone call and c) They'd played the same movie like three times before and it didn't look very exciting. Now they're playing some documentary about Nashville/country music, which is pretty cool considering that this is a flight to Chicago and not Nashville. By the time you get this you'll probably be back from Bonaroo, but still, hope you have fun there! If you have some time on your hands you should totally make my a mixed CD with all the cool music you heard there (or any music, really)!

I'll try to do the same once I'm home.

Can't wait to see you once we're both in Nashville!

Cathy

P.S. - I strongly recommend bringing a neck pillow on your flight to Europe.
