

Dear Caroline,

2-1-17

Today I got your postcard in the mail, and I gotta say, whenever I'm feeling tired and blue, your postcards always make me so happy! I'm very excited for your new job and research, and that you're now 20! How crazy is that? I'm pretty sure we met when we were 10, so we've basically known each other for most of our lives. Anyway, hope this postcard makes you smile - I know it's p. strange but for some reason I thought you might like it. ☺ Keep killin' it at Emory, and enjoy the feeling of being 20! Much love,

♥ Cathy
